WE

Although Weymouth High School Students may appear to be just like any other High School's, we are unique; our school is unique. We have as many different moods as there are each of us. Our students help one another with tutoring; memorable friendships are formed daily; discussion groups in our classes shed light on facets of high school students never rated before. W.H.S. is typical of many schools however, in other ways: students may be seen strolling down the corridors; teachers converse; students animatedly discuss the day's events. Suddenly the bell rings. Books fly, doors slam, and solitary students dash madly to classes.

After our years at W.H.S., we have learned a great deal about the "why's" of this world, and the people around us who compose it. For the most part, intelligent views are expressed by the more eloquent among us; we care about the changing world we will one day lead. We are Unique.

CAFETERIA WORKERS

At both Weymouth High School and the Annex, well-balanced, appetizing meals are prepared daily by our efficient staff of cafeteria workers. Considering the number of hungry students they must serve each day, they do an excellent job. For their superior service we are grateful.

"Patty cake, patty cake . . . "

CUSTODIANS

The responsibility of maintaining the beauty of Weymouth High School and its surrounding grounds is that of our fine custodians. This service they perform with both competence and proficiency, under the direction of Mr. Arthur Cicchese. The friendly countenances of the custodians lend a cheerful atmosphere to our surroundings.

Mr. Cicchese sweeps up.

"At last, a break!"

SPORTS

"Nothing much; just hanging around."

"Stick 'em up!"

"Wait'll I turn this net around."

FOOTBALL

On Thanksgiving Day, a crushing victory over Brockton High School ended another successful season for the Weymouth Maroons. In his second year at Weymouth, Mr. Wheeler coached the team to a commendable 7-2 record. The Maroons suffered two losses this year, to Arlington and Brookline, but proved their true ability by defeating the Class A Champions, Newton, 28-8. The success of this year's team was attributed to a combined team effort. Outstanding performances were provided by all seniors, a few of whom were: Bill O'Brien, Gene Brennan, Bill McCurdy, Rick Lindstrom, and Frank Baldassini. These boys not only contributed their fine ability, but also inspiration and leadership. They made a powerful mark in Weymouth High's football history.

Next year's team should have no trouble continuing Weymouth's winning tendencies. Coach Wheeler will have an outstanding nucleus with the return of Jim Murphy, Pat Higgins, and the All-Scholastic members: Tom McMahon and Jim Taubert.

CHEERLEADERS

This year's Weymouth High School Pep Club and cheerleaders enthusiastically cheered our football and basketball teams on to numerous victories. At the games the cheerleaders displayed their gymnastic ability, while the Pep Club members exercised their vocal chords. Under the direction of Miss Arnold, Head Cheerleader Mary DeCoste, and Pep Club President Cheryl Nixon, the members of the club held two pep rallies which aroused abundant school spirit. At the end of the football season, the club sponsored a victory dance, with the proceeds going to the scholarship fund.

BASKETBALL

Finishing sixth in the Suburban League Our Basketball Team was led by co-captains Ruory Gregg and Carl Reavy. Preparations for the opening game on Dec. 20, 1968 were hindered by a delayed practice. Lost time was made up by the players' efforts at future practices. Unexpected trouble from Brookline, Waltham, Brockton and Rindge Technical, led to the ousting of Weymouth's chances for a Tech Tourney berth. The Maroons lost all eight games to these teams, two over the minimum six allowed in receiving a berth in the Tourney. Due to school cancelations for bad weather the final game of the year against Quincy was postponed and then cancelled. Although the record of this year's team wasn't quite as high as it has been the last few years, the desire, hustle, determination, and spirit never vanished from the hearts of the players. Coach Kearns can anticipate much happier days ahead.

HOCKEY

Weymouth High School's hockey team had a very successful year, ending the season with eleven wins and six losses. Led by All-Stars Vic Puntiri, Bill Dempsey, and Phil Youngclause, Weymouth won the lower half playoffs at the end of the season. The Maroons had many good hockey players in addition to the above three, namely defense-men Paul Garvey, Phil Dolan, and Bob Guest; forwards Kevin Sheehan, Steve Wrye, Wayne Douglas, and Paul Haley, along with Joe Lamm in the goal. All players contributed to the cause for success readily. The combined effort of the hockey team produced a successful season which will be hopefully matched by the team members to come. As a result of the excellent coaching of the experienced Mr. Dempsey, the high-scoring skates will be filled; Weymouth is confident that as he has done it before, he is capable of doing it once again.

WRESTLING

After a disappointing season of five wins and four losses, a fired-up Weymouth High Wrestling Team proved their ability in the post-season competition.

Under the direction of coach, Ralph Jannino, and the leadership of tri-captains, Bill Hendry, Tom Haywood, and Rick Lindstrom, the Maroons shocked the giants of the Bay State League by taking first place in the Southeast District Championship. In the Regionals, all fourteen members of the varsity qualified for the State Tournament. First place finishers were Kevin Farrell, Bill Hendry, Tom Haywood, and Tom Travers; second place was Rick Lindstrom, Steve Barry, Russ Rennie, and Steve Kohler earned third place honors; Brad Wellock, Dana Morse, and Mark Jarvis won fourth place awards; Lee Clarke, Terry MacDonald, and Scott Willy came in fifth in their respective weight classes.

Mr. O'Leary's team qualified a runner for the New England meet in Mark O'Brien, who finished in 17th place. The captain was Joe Rosado. Lettermen were Seniors: Donald Bambrick, John Channell, and Joe Rosado; Juniors: Gary Heinstrom, Mark O'Brien, and Gabriel Ramirez; and Sophomore John Delorey.

WINTER TRACK

The winter track team did it again, finishing with a three way tie for the league championship. Newton and Natick were tough competitors this year. Newton fell in the last event to our unbeatable relay team of Paul Horrigan, Joe Rosado, Bill Morin, and Gary Tirone. Natick proved to be stronger in the last meet by sweeping the dash to win the meet.

Co-captains Paul Horrigan and Joe Rosado did a great job in setting the victorious spirit of the team. Paul shattered the 300 yd. dash record and Joe won all the firsts he could find. The only first in the state meet was Bill Morin.

The whole team wishes to thank Mr. O'Leary and Mr. Meehan for the exceptional job they did.

SPRING TRACK

Weymouth is one of the top track powers in the state. In the last three years under the capable guidance of head coach, Mr. O'Leary and asst. coach, Mr. Meehan, Weymouth has won three consecutive State Championships. Running, sometimes under not the best conditions, Weymouth has won 48 consecutive dual meets. Led by co-captains, Paul Horrigan and Joe Rosado, Weymouth has a good chance to win an unprecedented fourth straight title. Weymouth has never lost a dual meet on their old home track. They have also been Suburban League Champion the last five years. The spring track team looks forward to a fine season.

First class – the only way to travel.

BOYS' GYMNASTICS

"Yikes, I think I'm gonna sneeze!!"

Although the Weymouth High School Gymnastic Team triumphed only once during the season, it shows great promise for the future with its sophomore and junior members.

Led by Captain Al Zylinski in impressive all-around performances and under the fine guidance of Coach Richard Hayes, the team made some impressive showings.

Next year we can expect fine performances from Tom Gentile in free-exercise, Dave Martel on the rings, Glenn Carver on the high bar, and Charley Cavicchi on the side horse.

In the Individuals, Bonnie Corrigan came in 2nd, Kathy Dempsey came in 4th, and Cheryl Bickford placed 5th.

The team practices diligently throughout the season to develop the agility, coordination, grace, and stamina needed for the strict competition in gymnastics. With the addition of many talented sophomores, next year's team will surely succeed in retaining the championship, and in adding to Weymouth's athletic lustre.

Bonnie flies through the air with the greatest of ease.

Officers of the Key Club: Tom Dunlay, Web Tileston, Steve Tringale, Joe Rosado.

The Key Club, under the direction of Mr. Daley and sponsored by the Weymouth Kiwanis Club, has an active membership of twenty-five. The officers this year are President Webster Tileston, Vice-President Tom Dunlay, Secretary Steve Tringale, and Treasurer Joe Rosado.

The activities of the club include co-sponsoring the Book Fair and selling the program for the Thanksgiving Day Football Game. The money they raised went to Thanksgiving baskets for the needy families in the town and will be put towards scholarships for graduating seniors.

STUDENT COUNCIL

This enthusiastic body of elected students, who must maintain set academic requirements to remain a member of the group, functions weekly under the capable direction of Miss Martinez and Mr. Brizzi. The group's ideas and comments are reviewed thoughtfully and democratically with the leadership of competent officers: Vic Puntiri, President; Dave Killory, Vice President; Kathy Murphy, Secretary; and Bill Laverty, Treasurer.

Fund-raising activities were many this year. The annual Talent Show, one of the Council's outstanding functions, was a popular hit, and a financial success. A fall dance, likewise, proved to be very successful and Thanksgiving baskets were distributed to many needy families in the area. Once again the Globe Santa, complete with beard and red suit, made profitable rounds during the lunch hour.

Work can be Fun.

This year J.M.S.V.C. under the direction of Mrs. Magraw, expanded its program greatly. David Killory was chosen Sr. Chairman and William Concannon as Jr. Chairman. Linday Maynard was the secretary.

The Blind Committee was headed by Susan Lowe and David Hakala. Suzanne Lucas and Ronald Bentley chaired the Big Brother-Big Sister program. The Hospital Committee was under the Supervision of Kathleen Cody and Joan Pagnano. A new program was the Committee for the Elderly headed by Kristine Kalaijian and Lorraine Harrington. The last of the new programs was the Human Relations Committee headed by Kathleen Flaherty. As in the past, there was also a very successful tutoring service this year.

This year, too, there was an international week sponsored by J.M.S.V.C., wherein over fifteen guests from foreign lands participated in an assembly after they had been given a tour of Weymouth High. Both the students and the guests were impressed by each other.

J.M.S.V.C. has helped all Weymouth students and faculty to realize the importance of charity and compassion in the human relationship.

FTA

Under the direction of Miss Pearson and Susan O'Brien the President, F.T.A. invites a guest speaker to tell about his experiences in the teaching field at the monthly meeting. F.T.A. also sponsors field trips to different colleges and universities in Greater Boston so students may become familiar with the various schools in this area.

The club members annually observe Weymouth public school classes for a full day at various grade levels. As a result, the club members learn more about their chosen profession, and understand more fully its demands. They return to the High School with a much clearer picture of the careers that lie in their futures.

FNA

A profession that is of interest to many girls is nursing. The objective of the Future Nurses of America Club is to teach all girls who are interested in nursing more about it and how to make themselves more worthy to enter that field of endeavor. The Club is under the direction of faculty advisors Mrs. Hoyle and Mrs. Archibald, and the officers, Barbara Mullin, Virginia Pierce, Phyllis McHugh, and Linda Cordone. Enough money has been earned for two senior scholarships.

F.B.L.A. meetings are often highlighted by guest speakers representing various professions in the business field. Members acquire knowledge concerning the advantages and disadvantages in specific areas. Club members receive valuable information which will be of great importance upon entering their chosen professions.

MATH TEAM

The five members of the Math Team are chosen from Math Club members. During the year, the team competes four times with other schools from the South Shore. The team members are Peter Gordon, Paul Watson, Kathy Nitchi, and Neal Steinkrauss.

This year, the team did very well under the excellent coaching of Mr. Duseau.

With the addition of the computer to the Math Department this year, the Computer Club was organized under the advisorship of Mr. Duseau. Although many students had completed the summer course in computer programming, new students were taught to use the high school computer, and, under the direction of President Maureen Walsh, all were instructed in the use of Northeastern's CDC 3200 computer.

CHESS CLUB

"What a move!"

The powers of concentration of Chess Club members may be observed any Monday afternoon as the members meet under the direction of faculty advisor Mr. Lofgren and President John Goddard. Intellectual and strategic skills are developed by frequent competition both with rival schools and among themselves. While veteran members carefully calculate their next moves, many a new member is drawn to the game, eager to learn it fully. As opponents progress by alternate moves, one eventually succeeds in check-mating his opponent's king, or both opponents ward off any possible advancement until a stalemate results.

"Wow! What now?"

Mr. Lofgren looks on.

A. V. CLUB

"I can't see anything."

Audio-visual aids are an important asset to the education of Weymouth High students. During study periods, members of the A.V. Club, directed by Mr. Rudolph and Mr. Sedman, repair and maintain the large variety of equipment and films necessary to the entire Weymouth school system.

WHS-TV

On most Fridays, the students of Weymouth High are entertained, amused, and provoked by the telecast of WHS-TV. With the help of Miss Marinos, Mr. Rudolph, and Mr. Sedman, the students write, direct, stage, and perform different types of broadcasts: news reports, interviews, and holiday specials. WHS-TV helps students who plan to enter the entertainment field gain valuable experience.

FILM MAKERS CLUB

A new club for the students who are movie-minded at Weymouth High School is the Film Makers Club. Under the direction of Mr. Sedman, the faculty advisor, the members learn to create, film, and edit their own motion pictures.

The major project for the club this year was the Film Festival. Students were given the opportunity to vote for several major motion pictures which they wished to see. The elected films, including Paths of Glory and Endless Summer, were shown after school in the auditorium for a nominal admission charge.

POLITICAL AFFAIRS CLUB

Karen Pharmer points out a trouble spot of the world.

The purpose of the Political Affairs Club is to provide students with an opportunity to discuss politics and current events. Under the direction of Willis O'Brien, Karen Pharmer, Miss Marinos, and Mr. Brizzi the club conducted a mock presidential election in November, featured WHS-TV Programs, and presented guest speakers. In March, four members, Willis O'Brien, Karen Pharmer, Dave Olson, and Doric Scarpelli, went to Georgetown University to represent the country of Kinshasa (Congo) at a mock U.N. Assembly. There they were exposed to new ways of thought, and were armed with ideas to make club meetings even more exciting.

Officers of the Political Affairs Club: Karen Pharmer, Willis O'Brien, David Olsen.

CHORUS

To achieve a perfect vocal sound, under the guidance of director Mr. Burns, is the objective of the Weymouth High Chorus. It allows students to examine, appreciate, and learn selections ranging from Bach to modern tunes. This year, chorus members have participated in the District Festival All-State, the New England Concert, the Christmas and Spring Concerts at the High School; and in performances for the Weymouth Music Parents Association, at Boston University and local churches. Satisfaction and enjoyment are results of the Chorus's long hours of practice.

For particularly gifted members of the Chorus, the Chorale and Glee Club offer more practice and training.

WEYMOUTH

BAND

This year, the Weymouth High School Band has participated in a full schedule of events. In the fall the band played at the football games and marched in the Veterans' Day Parade. By practicing daily throughout the year, the band members improve technique, and also learn new fundamentals in music.

In addition to participating in the Myron Floren Concert, the Spring Concert, the Memorial Day Parade, and graduation exercises, the band also planned an exchange concert on April 11 and 18 with Middleboro. As usual, many qualified band members were chosen for the District, All-State, and New England Concert festivals.

THEATRE ARTS

Those students at Weymouth High school who possess an interest in the unusual, mixed with extremely exotic taste, will find a place in the Theatre Arts Club. The enthusiastic members meet regularly to plan club events under the supervision of club officers. Under the guidance of Mr. Daniels, the faculty advisor, members discuss the different aspects of play production.

Many an opportunity exists in this club . . . to learn the correct procedures of applying makeup; to observe the back-stage techniques; to act, or even try one's hand at writing. Many a member may emerge as an illustrious performer of the theatre.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The senior class of '69 presented The Gazebo as its senior class play. A two-act comedy murder, it involved a T.V. mystery writer, his wife, their neighbor, and a persistent real-estate agent. The question—Who was buried under the gazebo?—perplexed everyone. The production was presented December 6 and 7. It ran smoothly with the help of the backstage crew, special committees, and faculty advisors.

AN EVENING OF ONE ACT PLAYS

"You bet your sweet Bippy."

This year, the Theatre Arts Club of Weymouth High sponsored an evening's entertainment of three one-act plays. Under the direction of Mr. Daniels, the club brought a first to the Weymouth High stage—a dramatic reading entitled Where Is Love? Parted On Her Wedding Morn, a typical melodrama, provided the comedy for the evening. For a dramatic climax, The Lottery was presented.

TALENT SHOW

Jean Walsh sings a folk medley.

"Let's look at it this way." The Annual Talent Show was, as in the past, another howling success this year.

Under the supervision of Mr. Brizzi and Mr. Masters, the Silly Putty Repertory Company produced a masterpiece of fine showmanship.

Talented students performed various acts of singing and dancing, while hilarious skits were acted out between numbers.

The shows and talents are becoming better each year and the 1969 performance was no exception.

REFLECTOR

Every Wednesday afternoon during the school year, Room 214 serves as the meeting place for some of the most creative minds of Weymouth High. For it is here, guided by Miss Andem, that the Reflector staff assemblies to discuss and organize the twice yearly issues of our school magazine.

This year the group has been directed by the editor Doric Scarpelli and assistant editor Andrea Watson. Led by these two students, the literary staff members have spent much time thinking and writing, interviewing and observing; and the result has been two informative and interesting issues of the Reflector.

Both issues were concerned with the cultural revolution.

Credit must be given the hard-working secretaries and advertising staff; and also to the Print Shop for their skill in helping to create such a fine magazine. Jolene Cazzola and her Reflector art staff provided unique and entertaining designs for both issues.

DEBATE SOCIETY

The Weymouth High School Debating Society is an active group of competitive students developing their powers of persuasive speech. Advised by Mr. Fox, the society has participated in and hosted meets with other members of the South Shore Debate League.

The highly successful Book Fair was co-sponsored by the Debating Society and the Key Club, and did much to sharpen the intellectual curiosity of W.H.S. students.

The officers for the 1968-1969 year were Kristin Bergfors, President; Sara Bowen, Vice President; and Diane Bosche, Secretary.

CONSERVATION CLUB

This year, the Conservation Club continued its program of teaching basic natural science to the elementary grades at Johnson School. Also, last summer, a teaching program and nature walks were conducted at Great Esker Park. Many club members volunteered to conduct these walks. With the aid of the faculty advisor, Miss Toomey, the club presented a program in January for the Appropriations Committee to influence them to recommend financial aid for the advancement of club projects in conservation and for work at Great Esker Park.

RIDING CLUB

Nearly every Saturday, they meet at a local stable, where they then saddle up and ride for several hours. The members not only enjoy themselves, but also instruct each other as to varied techniques. The club had a booth at the Mardi Gras and assisted the J.M.S.V.C. during their Good Neighbor Week.

SKI TRIP

This year a group of Weymouth High School students took a seven-day trip to Innsbruck, Austria, under the sponsorship of the Norwell Cultural Society. Club members indulged in skiing, touring, and other pleasures of Innsbruck. While there, several students explored the countryside in their leisure time.

One of their more memorable experiences was a most daring luge sled ride down the mountain-side and along the ravine. The chaperoning teachers were Mr. Emerson, Mr. Brizzi, Mr. Sedman, Mr. Tedesco, Miss Kirkland, and Mr. Murray.

SPANISH CLUB

"Siempre en Espanole", always in Spanish, is the motto of the fun-loving Spanish Club. This group of W.H.S. students is led by Miss Rodrigues and Mr. Player. They enjoy having parties, singing Spanish songs, and eating. Meetings are held every two weeks and a student must be able to speak Spanish. The club members helped in planning the Mardi Gras, and this spring they plan to attend a Spanish restaurant.

FRENCH CLUB

This year's French Club, under the guidance of Mr. Porter, has had a successful year, with the leadership of President, Bob Sullo; Vice President, Cindy Alemian; and Secretary-Treasurer, Kristine Kalaijian. Dining at a French restaurant after viewing a movie, was enjoyed by the members with the profits from a cake sale.

SCIENCE LAB ASSISTANTS

The Science Lab Assistants spend their noon-times and other spare moments in working on projects and experiments of special interest to themselves. While indulging their fascination for chemistry and physics, they keep the labs ready for use by teachers and students.

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

The student library assistants do "hundreds of things" to help run the W.H.S. library according to Mrs. Diment, the librarian. Besides devoting much of their time during school to charging and shelving books, the students also deliver passes, check in new books, and file magazines. While helping the librarian, the assistants also help themselves by discovering the many functions of the library.

LANGUAGE LAB ASSISTANTS

Language Lab assistants explore the mysteries of machinery.

The language laboratory offers to Weymouth High Students, various means of mastering their specific languages. The aid of modern equipment and the lab assistants enables the teacher to give more attention to individual students.

DECA

Under the guidance of Mrs. Doucette, the members of the Distributive Education Clubs of America are on their way to becoming successful in careers of marketing and distribution. With officers Kathy Scott, President; Carol McCaffrey, Vice President; Joyce DiBona, Treasurer; and Mary Coveny, Secretary, they are working on a film entitled Randy the Retailer.

CAMPUS

After countless months of hard work the finished product—the Campus, is finally published. Little is realized of the force behind the yearbook. From September till June, the Campus room is the scene of chaos, as staff members devoted to the cause exercise their skills in writing, proofreading, and typing. Information used in the traditional biographies is collected and used as the key factor in composing the write-up. Typists and literary staff members alike work together to achieve perfection. All work dilligently to pass in the readied materials before the deadline. The art staff prepared layouts under the direction of Mr. Chop, and also devoted long hours to the boards of photographs. Members of the sales staff collected the many dollars needed to support the publication of the 1969 Campus.

Soon, Weymouth High School will be something in our past, but the strength and knowledge we have gained here will be something in our future. As we leave, we will be entering a bigger, more complicated world; a world of new dreams, new experiences and a new way of life. Our minds have been strengthened, our characters molded and we have been prepared. The last three years have given us a small view of what life will be like. Responsibility has been placed upon us, in order that we may learn to face responsibility in later life. Many challenges will come before us in the future, and, through the guidance and companionships of the teachers here at Weymouth High, we have been prepared to meet and face these challenges. Let us conquer these challenges to the best of our ability. Let the memories and companionships of Weymouth High help us to achieve our goals.
